President's Report-

A note from President Coll – Based on the survey regarding start times and locations we should start the meetings at 1000 beginning in September. We need to discuss the locations more with everyone. Possibly rotate through a central location in each zone, for example, Renton, Bellevue and the JTF. Secretary Nolan commented on the unusually warm and dry weather in Western Washington and the high fire danger and emphasized that just as important, the need for your personnel to stay well hydrated in conditions like these.

Chief Krause offered a warm welcome to everyone and thanked the KCFTOA members for their continued work and for what they bring to our fire departments in King and the surrounding Counties.

Good of the Order

Mike Bailey was asking about training devices for IM injections.

Don deVera was asking about the level of training (awareness, ops, tech?) your department set for rope rescue, confined space, etc.

Chief Krause shared a handout of "Leadership Initiative Survey Data" and mentioned that they are working with Gonzaga University to develop curriculum on the top competencies of that survey. Again, he thanked all of the zones for their involvement with the training organization.

John Stuckey mentioned that they are seeing many students emulating what their instructors are doing, which isn't always a good thing. Reminder to the instructor's , please check your ego at the door.

Jason Schnase announced a training opportunity – NFPA 402 compliance, Aircraft Rescue FF training in the 4th quarter.

Greg Baruso asked how other departments are controlling equipment, like back boards, that get to the hospitals. How do you know where equipment is and how do you retrieve it.

Blaine Singleton reported on Bellevue Fire's host of Fire Ops 101 on August 3rd. This was delivered to over 35 visitors, including politicians, from around the country and was a great success!
